REPRESENTATIONS OF THE FAYETTEVILLE DOWNTOWN DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

The following representations are made regarding donated property:

1. All objects accepted by the Fayetteville Downtown Authority become the property of the Fayetteville Downtown Development Authority. The gift is made without restrictions, including displays, preservation, retention or disposition of the property, either now or in the future.
2. The donor transfers to the Fayetteville Downtown Development Authority all right and title to the copyright, trademark and any related interest associated with this property insofar as the donor holds them.
3. Due to limited storage and exhibition space, the Fayetteville Downtown Development Authority cannot promise the permanent exhibition of any object.
4. The Fayetteville Downtown Development Authority is a nonprofit organization under the law of the State of Georgia; gifts made to the Fayetteville Downtown Development Authority may be tax-deductible. All donors should consult with their tax advisors regarding whether this gift is tax-deductible.
5. The Fayetteville Downtown Development Authority makes NO representations regarding the value of the property donated. Further, the Fayetteville Downtown Development Authority will not execute any agreements or statements regarding the value of the property donated. All valuations of donated property shall be performed by independent appraisal at the sole cost, expense and discretion of the donor.
